

Values Index

Honesty: The quality of being truthful and sincere.

Trustworthiness: The ability to be relied on as honest and dependable.

Care: The provision of what is necessary for the health, welfare, maintenance, and protection of someone or something.

Inclusivity: The practice of including people who might otherwise be excluded or marginalized.

Cohesiveness: The quality of forming a united whole.

Non-discriminatory: Treating all people equally without bias or prejudice.

Value-led: Guided by core principles and values.

Striving: Makes great efforts to achieve or obtain something.

Enabling: To give someone the means or ability to do something.

Embracing: Accepting or supporting willingly and enthusiastically.

Collaboration: Working together to achieve a common goal.

Kindness: The quality of being friendly, generous, and considerate.

Improvement: The process of making something better.

Learning: The acquisition of knowledge or skills through study or experience.

Respect: A feeling of deep admiration for someone or something elicited by their abilities, qualities, or achievements.

Excellence: Extremely good; outstanding.

Delivery: The action of bringing goods or services to a recipient.

Compassion: Sympathetic pity and concern for the sufferings or misfortunes of others.

Welcoming: Friendly or making someone feel welcome.

Transparent: Open and honest; easy to perceive or detect.

Effective: Successful in producing a desired or intended result.

Enabling: Providing the means or ability to do something.

Champion: A person who fights or argues for a cause or on behalf of someone else.